Furthermore, you stated that the delay in the publication of the 2016 advert in the Federal Tenders Journal, FTJ was as result of the mixed-up encountered between the FTJ's agent, the FTJ office and the College based on the claim that the FTJ edition of Monday, 19th September, 2016 was filled up. Furthermore, you indicated that the same version of the advertisement was published in the Nigerian Tribune of Thursday 1st September, 2016. You also clarified that with your advert in the FTJ of October 3-Sunday 16, 2016 the time span till the 31st October, 2016 as closing date is four (4) weeks which when added to the two (2) weeks gained from the advert in the Tribune will make the total duration to be six (6) weeks. 4. Consequently, you advised the Bureau	The Bureau having reviewed your submission, wishes to state as follows that: a) The instructions given to the College by the Bureau in their letters of 2013 and 2014 were to address specific challenges/observations in the adverts and should not have been taken by the College as applicable in subsequent advert except of course they are for general application. b) Based on the explanation offered in respect of the mixed-up for the advert in the FTJ which led to a 2-week delay and your concern to implement the 2016 Appropriation, the Bureau hereby reasons that prompt implementation of projects especially now when the economy is in recession is a recipe to spur growth and bring the country out of recession. 6.
