He advised the participants to put more attention on the training as Government had made huge sacrifices for that. He said, "Focus on what you will be taught and follow the instructions of the Resource Persons". He pointed out that, they will be examined at the end of the training and only those that meet the minimum pass mark would be admitted into the Cadre. The DG was represented by the Director, Energy Infrastructure, Engr. Babatunde Kuye.

The representative of the Chairman of the ICPC, Hon. Barr. Obiora Igwedibia, in his Goodwill message, commended the Bureau for coming out with such a programme, stating that, at a time like this when COVID-19 had eaten into the economy of every nation, all hands must be on deck to stabilize the economy and move forward. He declared the training open.

In his good will message, the Director General, Lagos State Public Procurement Agency, Mr. Onafowote Fatai Idowu, pointed out that, as Procurement Officers, they are duty bound to lead their executives and other officers in the right direction. "There must always be value for money, integrity and transparency, and much is expected of you". He advised that they should be dynamic in their duties.

A total number of 351 candidates are taking the training.
